As predicted and expected, the meeting of the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association, scheduled to take place last night, was not called the order for lack of a quorum. Only a fow of the members showed up, and they, seeing the futility of attempting to meet, left without going into the half. President D. L. Toney was confined to his rooms, and would have been unable to attend had the desired number been on hand. Many of the members are glad that the meeting was not held last night, as the business before the organization—the election takes place that overy member is important. However, it can wait, and it is desired that when the election takes place that overy member abe on hand. The meeting will probably be called for next Friday night. The Finance Committee Meets, The Finance Committee Meets, The Finance Committee met last night in the Council chamber, and spont several hours in approving bills of the past year. That was referred back to the Buildings and Land Committee for correction. When the bill of J. W.
